

Describe a book you recently read

VOCABULARY

Right so I'm going to tell you about a book called ‘Slice of the Moon’, it’s by Sonia Toksvig, I think that’s her name.

So my sister gave this book to my daughter and then I borrowed it from my daughter erm, partly because my sister said she had read it and she’d really enjoyed it

So it’s about a family in Ireland in the 19th century and it’s the story of how the family fled the country to escape the famine.

It’s their journey across the sea to America

It's told from the point of view of the young girl in the family and it's a really horrific book I mean it sent shivers down my spine

it was very tragic, one sad event after another.

I really enjoyed it because it is really easy to read

I mean it’s aimed at young children or teenagers and it's it's really engaging, I mean, it has to you on the edge of your seat

all the way through, wanting to know what's coming next, you literally can't put it down.

It’s a very exciting book, very compelling story and I loved it

I would recommend it, without a shadow of a doubt

I think it's a really good read, both for children and adults

I think there’s something for everybody there

So it’s great and in fact, I’d go as far as to say

it’s possibly the best adventure or travel book for children that I have ever read.
