REARRANGE

1. The following sentences are jumbled. Re-arrange them in a proper sequence:[DB-2024]
   i. For this, he was awarded gold medal in all India.
   ii. Joynul Abedin was such a personality who enriched our culture.
   iii. The artist did not like the heard rules of school.
   iv. He died on 28 May, 1976 in Dhaka.
   v. Joynul Abedin was born at a village in Kishoregonj in 1914.
   vi. The great personality is a person who contributed for hid country or the people.
   vii. He drew the pictures of the famine of the famine of the 2nd world war and got huge reputation.
   viii. His father Tamij Uddin was a police officer.
   ix. So, at the age of 15, he went to Kolkata and was admitted in a Government Art College.
   x. He was a great artist who owned name and fame for himself and his country.
2. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order:[MB-2024; CtgB-2023; JB-2017]
   i. He asked him where God is.
   ii. He praised him highly.
   iii. Once, a lad went to a famous teacher.
   iv. The teacher thought highly of the boy's understanding.
   v. The lad replied that he would answer of he would tell where He is not.
   vi. The boy devoted himself to earning knowledge.
   vii. He begged to instruct him in the arts and sciences.
   viii. He agreed to teach the lad.
   ix. He expressed his desire to acquire knowledge.
   x. The teacher wished to find out the ability of the boy.
3. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [CB-2024]
   i. The angel took down his request and went away.
   ii. His name was Abu Ben Adhem.
   iii. Abu then requested him to put his name in the list because he loved mankind and his fellow brothers.
   iv. He again appeared the next night and showed Abu that his name was writing the names of persons Abu that his name was at the top of the list.
   v. The angel was writing the names of persons who loved God.
   vi. Once upon a time there was an honest and pious man.
   vii. He asked the angel of his name was there.
   viii. He was once sleeping peacefully.
   ix. In reply the angel said that his name was not there.
   x. Suddenly he woke up and he saw an angel.
4. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [RB-2024]
   i. Knowledge of these machines is essential to keep pace with the future world.
   ii. The sooner we can make and activate this plan, the better it will be for us.
   iii. This is known to be AI (Artificial Intelligence) Revolution.

iv. Therefore, learning technology and achieving technological skill should be thought of seriously.
v. The machines will mainly include computer, mobile phone and robot.
vi. But we can no longer wait; exact and realistic plan should be made now.
vii. The fourth revaluation is knocking at the door.
viii. Those who are skillful in it will survive successfully.
ix. We have not yet been prepared for this sort of education.
x. This revolution will turn the world into a machine-based one.

5. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [DjB-2024]

i. There she became a teacher of a school.
ii. Soon, her activities for the service of mankind spread all over the world.
iii. She was on her heels for her selfless services to mankind even at her old age.
iv. As a recognition to her service, She was awarded the Nobel Prize for peace in 1979.
v. She was one of those people who dedicated their lives to the service of mankind.
vi. When she was eighteen, she decided to be a nun and came to Kolkata.
vii. She swore to dedicate her life for the cause of the helpless and poor people.
viii. She was born in Yugoslavia in 1910.
ix. She was also given Bharat Ratna Award in the following year.
x. You have heard the name of Mother Teresa.

6. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [JB-2024]

i. The cook was very stubborn.
ii. The cook could not check his temptation and ate one of the drumsticks.
iii. The master was also very clever and was not to be fooled so easily.
iv. The cool was more than clever.
v. He replied that it was a one-legged duck.
vi. Once a cool roasted a duck for his master and it looked very delicious.
vii. The master came to have his meal and noticed one of the legs missing.
viii. He said that there was no one-legged duck.
ix. He asserted that this duck had only one leg.
x. He asked what had happened to the other leg.

7. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [CtgB-2024; CB-2016,2004; BB-2016]

i. The crow tried to turn the jar over again and again, but it had no effect.
ii. At last, he found a jar in a garden.
iii. As he was leaving the jar in despair, he noticed a heap of pebbles nearby.
iv. There was some water in the jar, but it was at the bottom and out of his reach.
v. He flew from one place to another in search of water.
vi. He took some pebbles and dropped them into the jar.
vii. Then he hit upon a plan.
viii. A crow was very thirsty and wanted to have a drink.
ix. When the water came to the mouth of the jar, the crow drank and met up his thirst.
x. As each pebble went down, the water in the jar rose up little by little.

8. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [BB-2024; Rb-2013]

i. Hojja became furious and decided to teach him a lesson.
ii. Suddenly, he saw someone calling from below.
iii. Hojja immediately replied, "Why did you make me climb all the way down stairs to ask for money? Couldn't you see that I was working? "
iv. When he came near, the man said that he was a beggar and wanted some money.
v. One day, Nasiruddin Hojja was mending a hole on the roof of his two storeyed house.
vi. The beggar was very surprised and asked why Hojja had made him climb the stairs to say had no money.
vii. When they both got to the rooftop, where he was previously working, Hojja turned towards the man and said, "Sorry, I have no money, so you have to leave."
viii. He saw there was a man standing at the foot of the stairs and was asking him to get down and listen to him.
ix. So, he told man to climb the stairs with him.
x. Being curious, he climbed down from the roof and went down the stairs.

9. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [DB-2023 & 2011; CtgB-2013; JB-2011]

i. "Where is my son?" asked the grocer.
ii. Then one day, the fruit-seller said to the grocer, "I am going to the town to do some shopping. Please, send your son with me to carry my things."
iii. The grocer said, "The mice ate away your balance and weights. So I can't return you."
iv. "A crow carried your son away," replied the fruit-seller.
v. One day, a grocer borrowed a balance and weights from a fruit-seller.
vi. The grocer sent his son with the fruit-seller but he came back alone from the town.
vii. "You liar! How can a crow carry away suck a big boy?" the grocer shouted angrily.
viii. The lame excuse of the dishonest grocer made the fruit-seller very angry. But he checked his temper.
ix. "Just the same way as mice can eat away the balance and weights," said the fruit-seller.
x. After a few days, the fruit-seller asked the grocer to return his balance and weights.

10. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [MB-2023; DB-2016]

i. He used to tell interesting stories to the people of the village.
ii. He never spoke the rest of his life.
iii. His name was Nambi.
iv. He lived in a temple at the village and passed his time under the banyan tree in front of the temple.
v. Before telling a story, he used to light a lamp in front of the tree.
vi. There was a remote village named Somal.
vii. One day, he could not continue his story.
viii. After a few days, he called the villagers and told them something.
ix. He was so ignorant that he could not tell his age, but he could make up stories.
x. The villagers were enchanted by a man.

11. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [CB-2023; CtgB-2017]

i. He was one of the most renowned linguists of Bangladesh.
ii. He died in 1969 and we remember him with respect.
iii. He was second to none in Bangla Language and literature.

iv. Dr. Mohammad Shahidullah was born in 24 Porgonas, West Bengal in 1885.
v. He joined Jashore Zilla School in 1908.
vi. He passed the entrance and FA exam in 1904 and 1906.
vii. He received some awards and contributed much to Bangla literature.
viii. He passed Honours and Masters in 1910 and 1912.
ix. He joined Dhaka University as a Lecturer in 1921.
x. He got his PhD in 1928.

12. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [RB-2023; SB-2023 &2019; CtgB-2016]

i. One day, he was very hungry.
ii. The grapes were too high for him to reach.
iii. Again and again he humped.
iv. At last, he entered into a vineyard.
v. Once upon a time, there lived a fox in a forest.
vi. But each time, he failed to reach the grapes.
vii. At last being tires, he went away saying that the grapes were sour.
viii. He took a run jumped to reach the bunch of grapes but could not reach it.
ix. He searched food everywhere, but he did not get any food.
x. There were ripe grapes hanging up on the vine.

13. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [DjB-2023]

i. They dug the hole, killed the snake, and took the necklace.
ii. The crow at last thought of a plan to get rid of its enemy.
iii. It stole an expensive necklace of the princess from the royal palace and dropped it into the snake lived in a hole at the foot of a tree.
iv. A snake lives in a hole at the foot of a tree.
v. The king became very angry at the loss and sent out men to look for the necklace.
vi. High up on its branches was the nest of crow.
vii. In the way, the snake ate up three of the chicks.
viii. The crow had four young chicks in its nest.
ix. In course of time, they noticed the scattered rubies near the hole.
x. Whenever the crow would leave the nest to bring food for its chicks. The snake would climb up and eat one.

14. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [JB-2023; DB-2017; BB-2017]

i. The he invited applications.
ii. The applicants were asked to meet the Sultan one by one.
iii. Long ago, there lived a Sultan in a country.
iv. Then the Sultan found the desired man.
v. He wanted to appoint an honest man as his tan collector.
vi. A number of people applied for the job.
vii. All the applicants blushed and refused expect one.
viii. So. he asked for the wise counselor's advice.
ix. When they arrived, the Sultan asked them to dance.
x. They came through a passage where gold coins were kept.

15. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [BB-2023; RB- 2017]

i. As a result, he studied under a great thinker Plato.
ii. He also wrote books on Biology, Literature, Economics and Comparative Politics.
iii. Plato taught Aristotle according to his own way.
iv. Aristotle was born in Greece.
v. His father wanted him to be physician, but he never cherished to be so.
vi. Later on, Aristotle took the pen to write on topics suitable for human civilization.
vii. He is called the father of Biology because of his creativity.
viii. Politics' is one of his famous book, which exposes fullest development of his wisdom.
ix. He wanted to be a free thinker.
x. He was the son of a royal physician.

16. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [DB-2019]

i. All the servants were called and interrogated.
ii. In order to find out the thief, the judge chalked out an intelligent plan.
iii. Once, a gold necklace was lost from a rich man's house.
iv. The servants were summoned to the court but they denied having stolen the necklace.
v. When the servants came to the court the next day, the thief had already cut off an inch of his stick.
vi. But nobody confessed their guilt.
vii. So, the owner of the house lodged a complaint in the court.
viii. The judge found one of the sticks shorter than the others, and in this way, he could easily catch the thief.
ix. Naturally, it was suspected that one of the servants had stolen the necklace.
x. He gave each of the suspects a stick of equal length and said that one of the sticks would increase by an inch the next day.

17. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [CB-2019]

i. He died on August 29, 1976 and was buried in the compound of Dhaka University.
ii. He wrote a lot of poems, songs, gazals,, short stories, novels, etc.
iii. He lost his father at the age of eight, and at the age of eleven, he showed hid poetic genius.
iv. At the age of nineteen, he joined the Army as an ordinary soldier to fight in the Frist World War
v. On his return from the battlefield, he gave up the sword for the pen.
vi. It was tragic that he had been suffering from a cruel disease since 1942 and remained paralyzed for the rest of his life.
vii. In 1924, he married Promila in Kolkata. viii. Bangladesh became independent in 1971, and he was brought to Bangladesh from Kolkata in 1972.
ix. Kazi Nazrul Islam was born in 1899 in the district of Burdwan in West Bengal.
x. Then he was declared our national poet by the Government of Bangladesh.

18. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [RB- 2019]

i. He showed extraordinary credit every examination of the school.
ii. He has made great contribution to the scientific research of Bangladesh.

iii. Dr. Kudrat-e-Khuda was born on 8th May at village Maragan in the district of Birbhum in West Bengal in 1900 AD.
iv. In 1925, getting star marks, he passed M.Sc in Chemistry from Kolkata University.
v. He died on 3rd November in 1977.
vi. His father Hazrat Shah Abdul Mukti was a pious man.
vii. In 1929, he passed D.Sc from Imperial College in England.
viii. At the age of six, he was admitted into a Furkania Madrasa and then he was admitted into an English School.
ix. He made had great plan to give the new structure of education system.
x. In 1953, he was appointed Chairman of Secondary Education Board.

19. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [DjB-2019]

i. During his stay, he received an unpaid letter from his friend, which contained nothing but some words.
ii. With a great hope in mind, he opened the box.
iii. He wanted to teach his friend a good lesson.
iv. An English poet was staying in Italy for the benefit of his health.
v. To his utter surprise, he found nothing but an ordinary stone.
vi. Thus, the poet taught his friend a good lesson.
vii. So, he procured a heavy stone and packed it up in a fine box.
viii. His friend thought that the contents of the parcel were valuable, So he paid the heavy charge for carrying.
ix. The poet had to pay double postage, so he became very annoyed.
x. Then he sent it to his friend with the words on it "Carriage to be on delivery".

20. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [JB- 2019; SB-2013; RB-2012; DjB-2012; DB-2005]

i. The king was fond of knowing his future from the astrologer.
ii. The king called him to the palace.
iii. At this, the king got furious and condemned him to death.
iv. A good astrologer visited the capital of the king.
v. Once, there was a king.
vi. With ready wit, he said, "The stars declare that I'll die only a week before your death. " vii. But another thought crossed his mind before the astrologer was removed for execution.
viii. The king then asked, "How long would you like to live?"
ix. The astrologer told something very unpleasant.
x. He then thought for a while some ways of escape.

21. The following sentences are jumbled. Rearrange them in a proper sequence: [CtgB-2019]

i. Still challenge remained with the immortal one.
ii. Strangely enough, whenever Hercules knocked off a head of Hydra, two new ones erupted in its place.
iii. Hercules, a Greek mythical hero, was the son of Jupiter and Alcmene.
iv. These huge tasks in Greek myths are called "The Twelve Labours of Hercules".
v. It had nine heads of which the middle one was said to be immortal.

vi. One of the tasks was to slay a monster called Hydra that was ravaging the country of Argos.
vii. His cousin Eurestheus, the king of Mycenae, made him undergo some difficult tasks.
viii. Eventually, with the help of Iolaus, his devoted servant, Hercules succeeded in burning all the heads except the ninth.
ix. However, with much effort, he buried the immortal head under a huge rock and completed the task successfully.
x. Initially, Hercules started striking off its heads with his club.

22. Rearrange the following sentences to make a coherent order: [BB- 2019; SB-2015]

i. The last words of the speech are: "Government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth".
ii. Abraham Lincoln was the President of the United States of America.
iii. On the 10th of November 1863, a railway train was carrying him to a place called Gettysburg.
iv. It is one of the finest and shortest speeches in English language.
v. He was going there to speak at a meeting.
vi. On the envelope, it was what he was going to say at the meeting.
vii. These words tell us what the best possible way of ruling a country is.
viii. He was not writing on a paper, but on the back of an envelope.
ix. In the train, he was busy with writing something.
x. IN fact, the speech on the envelope is now famous as "Gettysburg Address".