We were very close.
He was suddenly impelled to speak of things he had not spoken of before nor had I cared to ask him.
"You look a little bit like my mother", he said. "especially in the dark by the fire."
"But you were only four Jerry when you came here you have remembered how she looked all these years?"

Paul : Well I almost always get up early and I lift weight for an hour
Marie : You're kidding
Paul : No. And then go swimming.
Marie : Wow How often do you exercise like that Paul : About five times a week. What about you?
Marie : Oh I hardly ever exercise. I usually just watch Tv in my free time. Often my mom says marie darling don't be a potato couch.
Marie: You're really fit Paul Do you exercise very much?

A proverb goes Hard work is the key to success. If a man works hard he must succeed. On the other hand if someone idles away his time his downfall is a must there is no shortcut to success.
Sometimes we spend so much energy trying to find a shortcut to success only to realize that success requires hard work this is the lesson of the history but we don't want to take lesson from history. If we want to succeed we must work hard. Success in life never comes automatically it is to be earned through vigorous hard work.

Oedipus Rex a play by Sophocles performed sometime between 430 and 426 BCE which marks the summit of classical Greek dramas formal achievement known for its tight construction mounting tension, and perfect use of the dramatic devices of recognition and discovery. It examines the story of Oedipus who in attempting to flee from his fate rushes headlong to meet it. At the outset of the play Oedipus is the beloved ruler of the city of Thebes whose citizens have been stricken by a plague. Consulting the Delphic oracle Oedipus is told that the plague will cease only when the murderer of Queen Jocasta's first husband King Laius has been found and punished for his deed.
